

Blood from a post, 378.
The Ten Hours Bill, 372. .
The great undertaker, 398.
France and her universal suffrage, ib.
Diplomatic dust, 418.
The last of the Irish Lord Lieutenants, 419.
Centralized administration, 439.
A great evil greatly exaggerated, ib.
Rest, rest perturbed spirit, 458.
Spring blossoms on our social system, 459.
Hope for Ireland, ib.
A truly modest proposal, 479.
Stripes on the American banner, ib.
Wise benevolence, ib.
A severe but not unmerited rebuke, 498.
"The party of order" on the continent, 499.
The Board of Health on the metropolitan water supply, ib.
Parliamentary acoustics—"Audi alteram partem," 500.
"A true deliverance give," 519.
Cotton from its ancient soil, ib.
Loss of the steam-ship "Orion," 520.
Taking the census, ib.
Mysterious conspiracy, 539.
Royal and republican civil lists, ib.

The mountain of light, 540.
A great calamity—death of Sir R. Peel, 510.
The late Sir R. Peel, 558.
More nice than wise, 559.
Parliamentary registration, 56.
Piddle-fiddle, 579.
The law of life for life, 56.
"A plea for the very poor," 580.
University reform, 598.
"Her Majesty's Reformers," 599.
Royalty well cared for to the third generation, 600.
The political Van Clattercop, 618.
Sunday shop-shutting not Sabbath-keeping, 619.
The great statesman and "the proud nobility," 619.
Constitutional government made easy, 639.
Denmark and the Duchies, 639.
A hard case but not singular, 64.
The session of 1850, 658.
Ireland, 659.
Progress of the Birmingham movement, 67.
Faitb at fault, 679.
Pretenders to the throne of France, 679.
"The opinions of Sir R. Peel," 679.
The Frankfort Peace Congress, 698.
"Louis Philippe," 699.
Transplantation not re-production, 718.
The laws of life, wealth, and morals, 719.
Galvanism and gutta serena, 719.
Embassies and consulships, 738.
The American Congress and the slavery question, 738.
Haynau and the Hungarians, 738.
Abolitionism run mad, 758.
The early-closing movement, 759.
Professor Webster's crime and punishment, 759.
Our brothers white and black, the other side of the Atlantic, 778.
The Haynau question, 779.
Tardy honour done to a relic of remote times, 779.
Editorial masks forbidden, 788.
How to stop the leak, 799.
Peace-makers, 818.
Judicial murder, 819.
The new stamp duties, 819.
Rebellious authority, 838.
New letters for the press, 839.
Educational conference, 859.
The working of the curse, 859.
Rumblings of an approaching earthquake, 878.
Taken at our own work, 879.
Public schools in America, 899.
Europe be-peaceed, 899.
"Coming events," 918.
Sowing dragon's teeth, 918.
A few words or a good old cause, 919.
The limits of liberty, 939.
Meddling to me, 939.
Peace or war, 958.
Hats and tongues, 959.
Royal and dangerous pastimes, 978.
The Stormy Cape, 979.
The fog, 998.
Lord Curzon's lectures, 999.
The duty of university reformers at the present crisis, 1019.
The Post-office and the press, 1019.
Christmas, 1038.
Labour and the poor in 1850, 1039.

SPIRIT OF THE PRESS.

Spectator.—The New York miracles, 10; decline of official credit, 132; make-believe colonial reform, 152; Parliamentary business at Easter, 272; statistics of the Parliamentary session, 680; salaries of the great officers of State, 700.
Examiner.—Protectionist inconsistencies, 15; how to make a rogue, 152; the African blockade, 252.
Daily News.—The libellers of Kosuth, 36; the advertisement and stamp duties, 54; the new Prussian constitution, 132; the woman under sentence of death, 232; the alteration of the stamp duties, 252; Easter vestries and rapacious parsons, 293.
Morning Herald.—Parliamentary reform, 54.
Edinburgh News.—Protection, and high rents, 54.
Economist.—Price of foreign corn, 72.
Leeds Mercury.—The slave-trade and the African squadron, 92; diminution of crime, 272; County Court Extension Bill, 669.
Freeholder.—Who shall pay the taxes? 212; cost of our war establishment, 741.
Manchester Examiner.—Freehold Land Society, 474.
Norfolk News.—Progress of the suffrage movement, 580.
Bradford Observer.—Retrenchment commencing, 641.
Wakefield Examiner.—The newspaper stamp duty, 836.
Bristol Examiner.—British slavery, 862.
Patriot.—Anti-Papal Agitation, 982.

MIRROR OF PARLIAMENT.

DEBATES.
The Address, 112.
Claims on Greece, 115.
Our Foreign Relations, 115.
The Ecclesiastical Commission, 109, 136, 173, 366, 555, 575, 596.
Irish law reform, 133.
Ceylon, 134.
Hungary, 134.
Colonial Policy, 135.
Pirates' head money, 136.
Merchant seamen's service, 136.
Prison discipline, 137.
Poor rates and agriculture, 149, 173.
County rates and expenditure, 152, 332.
Minister's money, Ireland, 153.
Transportation to colonies, 153.
Loans to Irish Unions, 153.
Collision at Dolly's Brae, 154.
Australian Colonies Bill, 153, 336, 366, 379, 401, 461, 477, 483, 501, 611.
Landlord and Tenant in Ireland, 155, 594, 637.
Sanitary education, 169, 334, 490.
Benefices in plurality, 172.
Insolvent members, 172.
Small Tenements Bill, 172, 353.
Irish Franchise Bill, 174, 194, 235, 319, 481, 543, 574, 617, 631.
Marriage with a deceased wife's sister, 193, 213, 336, 430, 501, 574, 615.
Parliamentary reform, 193, 557.
Audit of railway accounts, 193, 315.
The education grant, 195, 587.
Fiscal reform, 309.

Parliamentary oaths, 56.
The Kilrush Union, 213.
Vote by ballot, 214.
Financial reform, 56.
Army estimates, 215.
Navy estimates, 215.
The African squadron, 229.
Secondary punishments, 233.
Amended Factory Bill, 240, 480, 501, 575, 594.
Affairs of Greece, 233, 292, 401, 420, 501, 515, 517, 585.
Financial statement, 233.
Stamp duties, 234, 313, 401, 655.
Free-trade in land, 253.
Industrial Exhibition, 251.
Duchies of Cornwall and Lancaster, 251.
Chief Justices' Salaries Bill, 251.
Window-tax, 259.
Encumbered estates, Ireland, 251, 483, 655.
Ordnance estimates, 292.
Taxes on knowledge, 300, 334.
County Courts, 312, 379, 501, 555.
Public Libraries, 315, 501, 596.
Salaries of public offices, 312.
Clergy Offences Bill, 313.
Metropolitan Interments Bill, 313, 400, 461, 477, 481, 501, 515.
The universities, 329, 360, 500, 594.
Bornean piracy, 335.
Larceny, &c., Bill, 335.
Revision of salaries, 356.
Railway Traffic Bill, 356.
Juvenile offenders, 366.
Affirmation Bill, 366.
Savings' banks, 366.
The corn laws, 397.
Irish vice-royalty, 420, 483, 502.
Relations with France, 440.
Public buildings, 441.
Civil service estimates, 442, 543, 575.
Sunday post-office labour, 456, 497, 514, 557, 576.
Free and slave-grown sugar, 460.
Ecclesiastical Appeals Bill, 461.
New houses of parliament, 481.
Cotton in India, 497.
Court of Chancery, 500.
Education in Scotland, 518.
Friendly Societies Bill, 518.
Education in Ireland, 515.
Death of Sir R. Peel, 535.
The malt-tax, 554.
Convict discipline, 574.
Capital punishment, 574.
Mine accidents, 574.
Ecclesiastical grants—Canada, 575.
Attorneys' certificates, 575, 593.
Duke of Cambridge's annuity, 593, 612.
English Regium Donum, 593.
Compound householders, 513.
Steam to Australia, 513.
Sunday trading, 514, 611.
Baron Rothschild, 413, 614, 617.
Irish Regium Donum, 615.
Ceylon Committee, 615, 636.
Crime in Ireland, 637, 643, 655.
Exhibition of 1851, 642.
Civil list, 642.
Ionian islands, 658.
Close of the session, 676.

DIVISION LISTS.

Ministers' money, Ireland, 153.
Poor-rates and agriculture, 175.
Parliamentary reform, 196.
The ballot, 216.
Financial reform, 215.
Taxation, 235.
African squadron, 229.
Taxes on knowledge, 300.
Australian Bill—ex-ergo clause, 356.
Board of Heresy Bill, 484.
Metropolitan Interments Bill, 313.
Secular education, 367.
Regium Donum, 513.
Bishop of New Zealand, 513.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

THE PEACE MOVEMENT.—League of Brotherhood, 16, 76, 455; League of Brotherhood bazaar, 217, 439; Manchester Peace Society, 274; Peace Society, 433; Peace Congress, 559, 641, 660, 681, 683, 712, 740; Delegates to Schleswig, 773; address of ditto, 795; address to inhabitants of Denmark and Schleswig-Holstein, 873; meeting at Wrexham, 943; sundry meetings, 982.
EDUCATION.—Mill-hill Grammar School, 7, 532; National Society and Committee of Council, 19, 133, 455; education in Scotland, 85; Voluntary School Association, 125, 375, 1017; Leicester-hire Association, 247; Owen's College, Manchester, 253, 274, 287, 309, 370, 485, 531; Lancashire School Association, 264; Industrial Education Institution, 200; meeting at Manchester, 296; University of London, 606, 380, 534, 571, 674, 759; Congregational Board, 309, 356, 395, 653; education controversy at Leeds, 318, 329; British and Foreign School Society, 377; West Kent Education Society, 672; People's College, Norwich, 683; Mr. Bright and the Public School Association, 672; Educational Conference at Manchester, 894.
THE INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION.—57, 175, 234, 522, 551, 741, 799, 900, 964, 1023; the Commissioners, 40; Messrs. Munday, 76; subscriptions, 85; banquet at Mansion-house, 247; working classes, 295; the building, 472, 667, 673; weapons of war, 494; banquet at York, 876.
LECTURES.—H. Vincent, 11, 92, 127, 212, 274, 294, 316, 337, 434, 494, 525, 545, 577, 691, 776, 816, 877; on newspapers, 622; Rev. R. B. Bayley on popular education, 772, 803, 812, 831.
PHILANTHROPIC AND SOCIAL.—Anti-slavery meetings, 10; ragged-school meetings, 81; capital punishment meetings, 81; imperial petition for ditto, 63; temperance movement, 33; lectures to the working classes, 40; female emigration, 63, 145, 287, 622; the tailor trade, 69, 206; New Asylum for Infant Orphans, 79, 416, 494; President Mahon's address, 88; baths and wash-houses, 99; births, marriages, &c., returns, 106, 392, 661; meeting of thieves, 108; Orphan Working School, 112, 324, 460; early-closing movement, 112, 217, 255, 896; juvenile depravity and temperance, 119, 237; sanitary reform, 125, 137; "O ganization of Labour," 168; extramural interments, 176; Asylum for Idiots, 249; emigration and the ragged-schools, 275; Post-office and the Sabbath, 309; Interments Bill, 397, 413; ten-hours question, 405; Aborigines Protection Society, 425; Temperance Society, 434; People's Christian Association, 455; Society for Improvement of the Labouring Classes, 474; new post-office regulations, 520, 533, 634, 673; park for Finsbury, 521; London costermongers, 592, 683; savings of middle and working classes, 622; drainage of south London, 651; proposed suppression of Doncaster races, 742; labour conference, Manchester, 760; freehold cottages, 791; ragged dormitory, 797; temperance festival, 833, 835; Sunday excursions, 835; "jobs" of the nobility, 857; soirée to Mr. G. Thompson, 862; public health, 900; census of 1851, 997.

POLITICAL.—Protectionist agitation, 39, 56, 68, 91; Cobden in Buckinghamshire, 55; city meeting on the Russian loan, 71; Freehold Land Movement, 76, 87, 238, 291, 658, 757; Cobden, &c., at Manchester, 89, 108; at Sheffield, 93; Bornean pirates, 127; ten-hours agitation, 129; Sir R. Peel and the Protectionists, 176; Ferrandiana, 272; More O'Ferrall and the refugees, 328; National Protection Association, 385; Mr. Cobden and Captain Aaron Smith, 466; Mr. Cobden and E. Garbett, 474; circular on the Borneo massacre, 476; Protectionist meeting at Liverpool, 476; local self-government, 492, 562; Mr. Bright on Roebuck's motion, 562; Baron Rothschild and his constituents, 619; Mr. Roebuck at Sheffield, 625; Lord Stanley on agriculture, 818; Freehold Land conference, 976; Reform movement, 123, 187, 216, 456, 525; National Reform Association, 37, 93, 677, 832, 959; meeting at Manchester, 148; Bethnal-green, 235; Harlestone, 325; Wymondham, 397; Walworth, 623; soirée, 699.

ELECTION INTELLIGENCE.—Windsor, 108; Colchester, 125; Kidderminster, 329; Finsbury, 433, 463; Devonport, 600; Southampton, 611; Tamworth, 611; Chester, 611; Lambeth, 620, 636, 637, 651; Poole, 711, 777, 784, 796; Cambridge University, 718, 803; Montgomeryshire, 842; St. Albans, 1037.

RAILWAY MATTERS.—Railways opened in 1849; 29; safety of railways, 76; railway traffic, 633; Eastern Counties Railway strike, 705; accidents, 777, 820, 852, 939; a railway arcade, 859.

IRELAND.—Encumbered Estates Commission, 9, 87, 106, 147, 168, 338; Protectionist movement, 9, 31, 68; counter-movement, 31; the Dolly's Brae affair, 68; awful catastrophe at Killiney, 69, 87; Romish university, 106, 732, 736, 835, 876; case of Mr. Reynolds, M.P., 106, 454; tenant-right meetings, 128, 146, 455; Irish alliance, 146; bread riots, 169; deaths from destitution, 187; decrease of crime, 236; the Viceroyalty, 247; emigration, 247; the Queen's College, 288; Repeal Association, 338, 577; the Pope's body-guard, 408; Presbyterians and tenant-right, 417; ministers' money, 417; potato crop, 523, 617, 634; conflict between Orangemen and police, 573; Mayo election, 617; population, 617; the Irish political convict, 630; tenant-right conference, 654; agrarian murder, 654; synod of Romish bishops, 655, 704, 722, 726, 735; Tenant League, 676; the harvest, 676; Lord Clarendon's visit to Ulster, 726; M. de Villers, 876; reproductive pauper labour, 873.

CATASTROPHES.—A lady burned to death, 16; wreck of the "Cal-b Grimsshaw," 19; death from starvation at South on, 40; death of the lion queen, 35; loss of thirty-seven fishermen, 68; shipwreck of the "Dart," 85; heavy storms, 124; Mr. G. Thompson, 127; attempt at paricide, 183; death from hydrophobia, 185; attempt to poison, 206; a poacher killed, 226; accident on the Mersey, 269; wife killed by her husband, 274; burning of L. mehouse church, 274; burning of the "Ocean Queen," 291; fire at Cottenham, 293; destructive thunder-storm, 434; fatal fire at St. Giles, 503; loss of "Orion" steamer, 521; accident on Brighton beach, 532; accident to Nasau balloon, 532; death by cholera, 531, 551; steam-boat explosion at Bristol, 616; fire at Gravesend, 651; loss of Mrs. Graham's balloon, 153; fire at Clerkenwell, 680; wreck of the "India," 736; explosion at Spitalfields, 757, 761; wreck of the "Superb," 797, 816; fire in Mark-lane, 813; accidents at Britannia Bridge, 833; loss of the "Peterhoff," steam-yacht, 937.

COURT AND OFFICIAL.—Deputations.—Tea duties, 76; advertisement duties, 127; land-tax, 127; paper duties, 129, 146; Irish railways, 177; Austrian Colonies Bill, 192; Ten Hours Act, 209; news stamp, 217; water supply, 239; Brick duty, 257; interest bill, 417; window-tax, 494.—Resignation of Lord Deunman, 192; Prince of Wales and charitable institution, 16; banquet to Lord Gough, 256; Lord John Russell in Manchester, 269, 277, 293; Queen's birthday, 417; university commission, 407; the Nepalese ambassador, 484; banquet to the Nepalese ambassador, 505; great seal, 485; visit of M. Thiers, 496; drawing-rooms and levees, 524, 563; royal christening, 524; Lord Palmerston and his friends, 525, 600; attack on the Queen, 510; state-ball, 545; Lord Chancellorship, 533; accident to Mr. Gilpin, 602, 623; legal changes, 611; Schleswig-Holstein protocol, 641; birthday amusements, 665; royal excursion to Ostend, 677, 504; royal visit to Castle Howard, 705; a dinner at the palace, 720; royal visit to Scotland, 722; the Queen in the Highlands, 763; Dr. Cumming's sermon at Balmoral, 804; return of the Queen, 843.

CRIMES.—Murder and suicide at Manchester, 84; dreadful imprecation, 93; case of Mary Ann Parsons, 103; Bank forgeries, 165; double murder at Juniper-green, 245; poisonings in Norfolk, 246; murder at New-castle, 307; murder at Newport, 315; village poisoning, 370, 737; suicides in Newgate, 573; murder at Liverpool, 661; firing Parkhurst prison, 443; robbery by a clerk, Liverpool, 755; outrage in the City, 776; murder at Primley, 797, 817, 831, 837, 857, 863, 877, 883; poisonings in Carmarthen-shire, 799, 887; plate robberies at Liverpool, 817, 565; murder at Donninghurst, 837, 863; burglary at Mr. Holford's, 877; jewellery robbery in the Strand, 883.

LAW, POLICE, AND ARMY.—56, 96, 123, 157, 177, 197, 218, 236, 256, 276, 296, 316, 338, 403, 426, 437, 464, 476, 496, 524, 545, 563, 584, 623, 695, 683, 704, 723, 743, 763, 803, 814, 883, 896, 923, 937, 982, 1003, 1043; a distressed needlewoman, 16; the Factory Act, 125; National Land scheme, 159; trial of the Birds, 276; Nisan v. Pettigrew, 276; the Gorham case, 369, 437, 464, 476, 496, 545, 563; Agapemone case, 437; mock agency office, 524; trial of Robert Pat. 582; Mr. Hudson again, 612; scientific poisonings, 645; extraordinary will case, 645; frightful murders, 645; case of the Birds, 665; starvation of a child, 683; poisoning case, 683; the "Orion" officers, 723.

SCIENCE AND ART.—Discoveries in the Arctic regions, 96; opening of St. Martin's Hall, 124; hearing apparatus, 147; London Sacred Harmonic Society, 149; Wednesday concerts, 161; Britannia bridge, 247, 473, 616; the Colosseum, 397; concerts at St. Martin's Hall, 436, 551; learned birds, 471; the hippopotamus, 475; overland route to India, 497; provision against shipwrecks, 570; British Association, 661; submarine telegraph from Dover to Calais, 711; description of ditto, 743, 762, 835; miscellaneous, 743, 763; Welsh musical festival, 802; the Hahemann hospital, 803; operation on bears for cataract, 1039.

NECROLOGICAL NOTICES.—Lord Jeffrey, 96; Rev. E. Bickersteth, 192; Sir J. G. Craik, Bart., 217; Madame Tussaud, 338; Madame Dulcken, 47; David MacLaren, Esq., 525; Sir R. Peel, 337, 510; funeral, 557; memoir, 560; testimonials, &c., 581, 602, 662; Duke of Cambridge, 562; Robert Stephenson, 602; J. A. W. Neander, 623; Right Hon. C. E. Law, Q.C., 637; Right Hon. Sir L. Shadwell, 663; Louis Philippe, 723; Baroness Rothschild, 743; Dr. Judson, 797; Lord Rancliffe, 902; Lord Nugent, 983; Robert Norris, Esq., 1012.

TRADE AND COMMERCE.—Money market, 21, 44, 59, 79, 99, 120, 140, 160, 179, 198, 219, 239, 259, 279, 299, 319, 339, 387, 405, 426, 446, 466, 486, 505, 525, 547, 566, 586, 607, 627, 667, 687, 725, 746, 767, 786, 806, 826, 846, 865, 886, 905, 927, 945, 966, 984, 1006, 1024, 1045; the revenue, 30, 277, 293, 563, 812; trade and commerce of the country, 40; trade and navigation, 148; Board of Trade returns, 634.

MISCELLANEOUS.—Madame Sontag in a snow drift, 11; Sir R. Peel and his tenantry, 15; benevolence of Jenny Lind, 16; high tides, 17; n-w Arctic expedition, 19, 77, 124, 216, 817, 821; professional mortality of cholera, 27; Mr. Bright on Ireland, 31; emigrant's column, 33; Whittington Club, 81; Lola Montes, 86; St. Helen's savings-bank, 85; 84; another newspaper commiseration, 95; execution of Margaret Lennox, 116; Eye Smith's testimonial, 124; advertisement duty statistics, 148; Newton's daughter, 160; British Journal and Eclectic Review, 165; Anti-state-church Association, 263, 307; petitions of Parliament, 175; Mr. Hudson, 192; taxes on knowledge, 316; Rochester Grammar School, 196; Central Gas Consumers' Company, 228; Mr. Beaufort's donation to the city corporation, 239; clairvoyante prophecies, 248; Game laws, 255, 419; a pack of hounds in an assize court, 255; fall over Clifton cliff, 261; Easter Monday, 275; model villages, 287; penny bonds, 288; soirée to Mr. E. Miall, 291; horse-drawing, 295; duty on newspapers, 607; execution at Cambridge, 315; burning of the de-ai, 371; singular train, 385; breakfast to Dr. Wardlaw, 414; chess, food and prosperity, 415; Eastern novelties, 440; vicissitudes of fortune, 473; a story of shipwreck, 473; monument to John Bunyan, 492; letter from the Duke of Wellington, 497; the Duke of Wellington's breeches, 512; emigration statistics, 532; amateur hanging, 546; extraordinary calculator, 563; female interpellation, 570; employers and employed, 597; Agricultural Society, 603; singularly silent of a dream, 620; Parliamentary oaths, 640; an Ojibway missionary, 645; benevolence of the Quakers, 611; Canterbury Association, 645; a coat of Mr. Green on horseback, 645; executions, 683, 706; Sir R. Peel's will, 683; new act on County Courts, 679; Jenny Lind at Liverpool, 686; Post-office returns, 686; phonotypy, 691; departure of Jenny Lind, 699; Lord Brougham and law reform, 705; penance at Wakefield, 706; water gas, 710; Tacon's Testimony, 711; romance without fiction, 715; new system of medicine, 731; Mazzini and his delirium, 737; attack on General Haynau, 742; harvest and crops, 742; the Duke of Athol, 749; O'Connor's land scheme, 745; the registrations, 763; Lord Brougham and illegal netting, 772, 792; coronation-stone, Kingston, 772; election of Recorder, 777; explosion at Seaford, 779; meeting of thieves at Aberdeen, 784; town council of Norwich and the new bishop, 801; a humble prima donna, 817; survey of European industry, 817; freaks of an elephant, 825; Lord Mayor's show, 919; consumption of smoke, 936; the fall of Newgate, 1039; Mr. Cobden challenged by Admiral Sir T. Hastings, 1043; escape from a convent, 1045.

FOREIGN NEWS.

FRANCE.—The garde mobile, 8; the education question, 29, 49, 65, 129, 144, 167; the President and his journal, 49; crusade against Socialism, 86; mediation in the affairs of Greece, 126; anniversary of Revolution, 185; elections, 207, 228, 217, 267; measures against the press, 249; M. Leroche-Jacquelin, 267; scenes in the Assembly, 267; mobbing the President, 267; Lamartine on Socialism, 314; fall of Anger suspension-bridge, 337; Paris elections, 381; new electoral law, 381, 402, 415, 435; ferment in Paris, 415; recall of the French Ambassador, 415; adoption of new electoral law, 453; augmentation of President's salary, 472, 517; new poor-laws, 531, 572, 593; General Changarnier, 533; the death of Sir R. Peel, 553; the committee of permanence, 611; banquets to officers, 653; great inundation, 645; President's southern tour, 657, 671, 691; the Legationists at Wiesbaden, 657, 692, 716, 721; M. de Balzac, 692; the President's eastern tour, 715; the President's visit to Cherbourg, 743, 753; the councils-general, 737; monarchical intrigues, 752; M. Barthélemy's circular, 796, 813; review at Versailles, &c., 793, 813; crusade against the press, 812; the President and General Changarnier, 900; opening of the chamber, 917; dismissal of General Neumayer, 920; the President's message, 942; levy of 40,000 men, 975.

ITALY.—Dr. Achilli, 8, 11; ecclesiastical doings in Naples, 30; the Pope's encyclical letter, 49; release of Dr. Achilli, 89, 136; the carnival, 114; the Pope and his prospects, 185; political prosecutions in Naples, 249, 731; propaganda in Rome, 267; claims on Tuscany, 675, 773, 814; arrival of the Pope in Rome, 337, 381; attempt to convert the Pope, 416; trial of the Archbishop of Turin, 434; Mr. Forner's case, 593; organic laws for Rome, 774; the Pope and the Piedmontese government, 793; abrogation of the Tuscan constitution, 797; the new cardinals, 834; Italian independence, 882; opening of the Sardinian chambers, 973; secret pact of extradition, 1016.

MISCELLANEOUS.—Discovery of inland lake in Africa, 8, 168; attempt to poison Kossuth, 30, 86; the ruins of Nineveh, 127, 208, 269.

Early closing, 6, 751.
Voluntary normal schools, 6.
Price of meat, ib.
Free labour movement, ib.
Mr. Miall's new work, 7.
The half-century, 28.
Poor lodging houses, ib.
What is the time? 47.
Land and Labour question, ib.
Christian emigration society, ib.
The dismissed letter-carriers, 48, 143.
Sunday evening lectures, 48.
The destitute poor, 85.
The New College, ib.
Washing liquor, ib.
The spelling reform, 104.
Marriage with a deceased wife's sister, 104, 371, 392.
The Horncro slaughterings, 104.
The right to employment, 124.
Seizure for income-tax, 124.
Burning of Ashwell Independent chapel, ib., 113.
Chapel begging impostor, 113.
Small Tenements Rating Bill, 184.
British Banner v. Electric Review, ib., 227, 267.
Clatus of Atrix, 247.
Washing a blackened character, 227, 266.
The exhibition of 1851, 266, 571.
Free Anti-state-church conference, 266.
Mr. Moore and Dr. Dick, ib.
The Affiliation Bill, ib.
Religious new-papers, 308.
Week of the "Bravo," 325.
The State-church and the Infants' Bible, 389.
Christian emigration to Natal, 411.
The Congregational Union meeting, 433, 453.
The burial question, 453.
Magazine literature, 472, 493.
Rajah Brooke, 472.
The Banner's new leaf, 493.
An old friend with a new face, 512.
The new Post-office regulations, 512.
Free trade and education, 531.
State-churchism in VI. League, ib.
Sabbath legislation, ib.
Dr. Campbell and the Baptist churches, 551.
Water supply to London, 571.
A visit to West Smithfield, 491.
University College prizes, ib.
The Lambeth election, 610, 633, 652.
Welfare of the poor, 631, 672.
Opium, 652, 710, 752, 813.
The late Sir R. Peel, 710, 792.
Water gas, 732, 813, 853.
The peace congress, 773.
Emigration of pauper children, 798.
New Marriage Act, 873, 921.
Compulsory and voluntary systems in colonies, 873.
Marriage rites, 893.
Protestant meeting at Islington, 921.

Preface, &c., 117, 197, 296, 461, 561, 616,
 661, 741, 821, 903, 921, 1001.
 Science of Human Life, &c., 17.
 Fox on the Religious Ideas, ib.
 Rationalism in Germany, 18.
 Mrs. G. dart's Truth in Everything, ib.
 Dr. Johnson on the Domestic Practice of Hy-dropathy, ib.
 Bartlett's Nine Boat, 42.
 Cyprian on the Church of Rome, ib.
 Galigni's Second Gallery of Literary Portraits,
 57.
 Mrs. Harvey's Juvenile Calendar, 77.
 Snowball's Life of Dr. Hamilton, 97.
 Brown's Galileo Galilei, 117.
 M'Cosh's Method of the Divine Government,
 137.
 Wallace's Guide to the Christian Ministry, 138.
 Jeffrey's Lays of the Revolution, 138.
 Carver's Letter-day Pamphlets, 158, 237, 297,
 353, 583, 665.
 Moore Verse and Prose by the Corn-law
 Rhymist, 177, 413.
 Schumann's Introduction to the Old and New Testament, 178.
 Laurie's Orator, 178.
 Bai's Angel World, 218.
 Paine's Sentiment for Tetrastal Societies, 237.
 Kavanagh's Woman in France, 237.
 Renssen, Revelation, and Faith, ib.
 Carpenter on Alcoholic Liquors, 277.
 Casch's Great Redemption, ib.
 Memoir of Dr. Channing, 316.
 Tynedale's Man of God, 317.
 Kiplah's War of Independence in Hungary,
 356, 361.
 Vienna's Institutes of Theology, 356.
 Letter on the University and Colleges of Oxford, 413.
 Newman's Phases of Faith, 465.
 Schlegel's Phases of the History of Theology, 485.
 Impartial Criticism, ib.
 Emerson's Representative Man, ib.
 Dr. Thomson on Temperance and Total Abstinence, 501.
 Vaux's Nineteen and Persepolis, 525.
 Macmillan's Life of Dr. Heath, 545.
 Bushnell's God in Christ, 554.
 Harle's Corner in the Commons, 605.
 Smith's Social Aspects, 621.
 Hannah's Life of Dr. Cadman, 681.
 A Week at Kilaree, 724.
 Elliott's Love, Poetry, and Letters, ib.
 Vercur's Analysis of Christian Civilization,
 725.
 Alton Locke, 761, 783.
 Green on the Working Classes of Great Britain,
 804.
 Stewart's Religion on the Weal of the Church,
 811.
 Hoard's Age and its Architects, ib.
 Memorials of Theophilus Trina, 861.

Limanacks, 42.
 The Comprehensive Pocket Bible, 58.
 The Family Friar, ib.
 Novello's publications, ib.
 Lectures to Young Men, 77.
 Memoirs of Sunday School Teachers, ib.
 Suggestions on Female Education, ib.
 Spiritual Curvature, ib.
 Spiritism, ib., ib.
 Publications of the Tract Society, 77, 98, 217,
 714, 984.
 Apocryphal Sketches, 98.
 Daily Bible Illustrations, 139.
 Friendly and Peace Islands, 158.
 Clarke on the Chartist party, 218.
 Congregational Year-book, ib.
 The Eclectic Dispensary, 219.
 Sir Thomas More's Utopia, ib.
 Life of Mahomet, 277.
 Biography of Benjamin Franklin, ib.
 The Council of Mecca, 298.
 Jews Restoration to Palestine, 317.
 Ragged Schools, 444.
 The pictures of William Etty, R.A., ib.
 Scenes from the Life of Moses, ib.
 Italy in the nineteenth century, 466.
 Morgan's Christian Commonwealth, 485.
 Jane Eyre, 504.
 Clarke's Hungary, 504.
 The Generation gathered and gathering, ib.
 The Hand of God in History, 505.
 The Crisis of Being, 525.
 Clarkson's India and the Gospels, 546.
 Royal Academy Exhibition, 565.
 Shepherd's Essays, 585.
 Pestalozzi's Early Education, 605.
 Education, Emigration, and Supremacy, ib.
 A Sunday in London, 606.
 South Africa Described, 624.
 The Life of a Vagrant, ib.
 The People's Service of Song, 625.
 McComb's foundation of Individual Character, 666.
 The Domestic Worshipers, 741.
 Analysis and Summary of Old Testament History, &c., 804.
 Mured on the Sources of his Information, 805.
 Kennedy's Thoughts on Being, 824.
 Pamphlets, ib.
 The Doctor's Little Daughter, 815.
 Thoughts for Home, ib.
 Wesleyan Missions in Jamaica, &c., 903.
 Religious Suppression and Indulgence, 961.
 Chivalry and its Uses, ib.
 Foxgloves, Allumettes, &c., 981.

GLASSINGS.—29, 44, 59, 78, 119, 140, 159, 179,
219, 239, 259, 278, 299, 318, 339, 386, 405, 426,
445, 466, 486, 505, 525, 547, 566, 586, 607, 626,
647, 667, 686, 745, 745, 765, 785, 805, 846, 865,
886, 905, 927, 946.